Indianapolis Loses the Second Game Played on the Western Trip.

pecial to the Indianapolis Journal. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 20.-The MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 20.-The local team outbatted Watkins's men t o-day, Fanning, with the assistance of a cloudy sky, decelving the visitors sadly. Nine strikeouts are credited to him, while Blackburn's and fight at Dallas. Damon's together only counted three. Both dichers for Indianapolis were miserably supported, thrown balls being muffed, round balls fumbled and even third strikes eing dropped. In spite of the fact that the visitors pounded out eight home runs the "Milers" beat them out by clear force f arms. The fielding play was very ordinary, except possibly, for Hogan's runs in center, one being successful, the other not. Damon let the "Millers" get off well head in the first and although he then held them down to a hit each time for three nnings, in the fifth the "Millers" fell upon im again and Blackburn was put in. The atter held them off only a short time, the seventh showing a starter for the locals and the eighth and ninth resulting disastrously for Blackburn also. Attendance, 1,500.

The narrow field at Detroit was largely responsible for the Blues' defeat yesterday. A hit over the right or left field fence within a certain limit counts for only two bases. SANGER TOO SPEEDY

None of the Others Able to Ride Within Twenty Seconds of the Big Milwaukee Wheelman.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. NEW YORK, July 20 .- Walter C. Sanger, the big Milwaukeean, was the lone star in the professional races at Manhattan Beach to-day. His total winnings will amount into the hundreds. Sanger outclassed his fellows, winning the contests with the greatest ease and in wonderful time considering the strong head wind on the stretch. To-day's contests inaugurated a continuous season of professional races at Manhattan Beach on Saturdays; at Riverton, Pittman Grove, Tioga track, in Philadelphia, on Mondays, by electric lights, and at Long Branch on Wednesdays. Sanger, however, does not belong to this party, but has dates for nearly every available day this season. About four thousand people cheered the winner.

The mile open professional was warm, very warm. Wheeler, Silvie, Cutter and 0 Bartholomew, on a quadruplex, paced. The starters were Sanger, Baker, Stouge, Starbuck, Eaton, Rumford and Pete Berlo. Baker caught the quad, but Sanger pushed forward along the pole and dropping back forced Baker from his position. Earned runs-Louisville, 3; New York, 1. DR. T. B. JACKSON, WILL CLAIM A BURGLAR'S REMAINS.

> Brought to a Medical College in This City-A Case That Promised a Mystery.

Dr. T. B. Jackson; of Gallatin, Mo., is expected in the city to-day to claim a body which was shipped from Brazil to the Medical College of Indiana a few days ago. It is the body of his son, T. E. Jackson, who was killed while trying to rob with two companions, both of whom were captured. There was considerable mystery about the affair and it was not until several days after the killing that it was known that the dead burglar was Jackson, who had before that time been a young man in high esteem. Till he joined the gang of burglars he was a practicing dentist

In early June three men, after loafing at Terre Haute for a while, appeared at Poland and made an attempt to rob the Kattman store. The proprietors had suffered losses from burglaries and were on the lookout for midnight visitors. When Jackson and his companions made their efforts to get in the store they were fired upon and the dentist was killed. One of his pals, who was afterwards identified as his pals, who was afterwards identified as Archie Agar, a Terre Haute man that had served a term for highway robbery, was wounded and easily taken. The third man, Ed Barker, a Terre Haute crook, was captured after a hard chase. Burglar's tools were found on the dead man. He had in his possession a satchel on which was the name T. E. Jackson. His clothing also bore marks to indicate that this was his from Gallatin, Mo. A dispatch sent to that place brought back the statement that there must be some mistake, as Jackson was a man of good reputation. It was added that he had left Gallatin with Chas, . Shaw, a man who was known to the police. The two men went to Chicago and about the same time a stranger was murdered in that city. The theory was developed that Shaw had murdered Jackson, taken his clothes and effects and left for Terre Haute. In this manner it was explained how the clothes marked T. E. Jackson were found on the dead burglar. The following letter was received from Jackson's father by the authorities at Poland:

"Thomas E. Jackson, who had a dentist's certificate from county clerk of Daviess county, Missouri, is my son. Will you send me all the particulars and tell me where buried. My son had a dent at the root of nose, was twenty-four years old, sharp nose, wore a suit of black, cutaway coat, derby hat and tan shoes. I hope to God it is not he that is killed, but give me all the particulars you have. I am too poor to come to see about it. I hope—yet I dare not. There has rever been a stain on my family, and it is one of the oldest in Missouri. Tell me everything you have in your possession, so I may know. Hasten your reply, and very much oblige a distracted father." However, a letter received from O. P. Walters, county clerk at Gallatin, a few days later settled the identity of the dead man, and it was shown that he was Jackson and not Shaw, as supposed. Shaw turned up in Gallatin, but was reticent as to his whereabouts.

After the killing the body of the burglar was sent to the Medical College at Indianapolis. Dr. Jackson was in Brazil yesterday and will be in this city to-day to obtain possession of the corpse.

PHOENIX TELEPHONE COMPANY AND

THEY COME TO TERMS

WORKS BOARD AGREE.

as the New Company Elects

The leading stockholders of the Phoenix Telephone Company, A. B. Gates, R. K. Syfers, and others, appeared before th Board of Works yesterday, to consult concerning the proposed contract to be entered into between the city and company for telephone exchange. The board asked the company if it was ready to sign the contract that had been proposed by its members, and they said that they were not. They had not yet elected officers, they said, and that would require ten days' notice. Another thing they asked before making a final agreement was that the Council should repeal the resolution under which the Central Union company is operating, and should pass an ordinance requiring all companies to go under ground with their wires. The territory in which the wires will have to be put under ground is bounded by New York Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi streets The company's poles outside of this area are to be located in alleys as far as possible. Work is to begin within sixty day after the approval of the contract by the City Council, and is to be completed in teven months. The company was given two weeks in which to perfect its organization and to sign the terms of agreement.

The maximum rates to be charged for business telephones for all distances within one mile is $42 a year, with $6 for every additional half-mile or fraction thereof, and $30 a year for all residence telephones for the first mile's radius, and $6 for each additional mile or fraction thereof. The company is to pay 5 per cent. of its gross receipts into the city treasury, beginning with the fourth year. The city fire and police departments are to be furnished their wires free and a charge of $18 a year for the telephone will be made when connected with the exchange, or $15 a year when not so connected, up to two hundred instruments. The company is to give a bond of $50,00 Mayor Denny said, last night, that h thought the plan would yet be adopted or passing a general ordinance under which bids could be taken for the franchise, the company offering the most to the city re-ceiving the franchise.

the Neighborhood. delegation of citizens living in the neighborhood of the old Haughey glue factory, which now belongs to the Kingan Company, called upon Mayor Denny and City Sanitarian Wynn, yesterday, to protest against the smells that accompany the business of unloading the cars on which the glue and raw material is carried. They said that it was simply impossible to live in the region, and that they were going to have some one arrested. Dr. Wynn had twice called the attention of the Kingan Company to the nuisance, and had received assurance from its officers that the nuisance would be abated. He concluded. ance would be abated. He conci therefore, that palliative measures were of no avail, and he, therefore, wrote to the company at once, forbidding the emptying of cars on the switch formerly used, and pointing out that the workhouse switch could be used for the business withou trouble to any one. The sanitarian referred copies of the correspondence to the Mayor.

Mayor Denny yesterday signed the re districting ordinances which will be pubished by wards and precincts to-morrow The Mayor said yesterday that he would veto the ordinance amending the first sec-tion of the building ordinance and changing the fire limits. His reason, he said, was not that he is opposed to the subject mat-ter, but because the ordinance is not prop-erly drawn and would be of no force if attacked. Legislative methods were not followed in drafting the ordinance.

PROPER WAY TO MAKE TEA.

A Ceylon Merchant Makes a Suggestion for Americans.

J. H. Grairo, traveling for a Ceylon tea company, is in the city. Mr. Grairo is a native of the island, but it is only the hue of his skin that betrays this fact, for he speaks correct English without an accent.

"The world's fair," said Mr. Grairo, "gave a wonderful impetus to the Ceylon tea business. In 1873 the island of Ceylon shipped twenty-three pounds of tea to England. That was the first foreign shipment. In 1893 the foreign shipments of our tea amounted to $83,000,000. Only the best grade is shipped from the island and it comes a little higher than the tea from Japan and China. Ceylon claims that her tea is hest because it is raised at a higher altitude than in China and Japan and is out of the reach of the salt air of the sea, which has a bad effect on tea. None of our tes is of the green variety, which some Americans seem to like the best. We dry our tea by hot air blown over the tea, while the Chinese dry theirs on copper pans, which gives too often the green hue to learned to properly make the beverage. The way to make it is to pour water that ha just reached the boiling point on to the tea. If you have one spoonful of tea le it stand one minute, if two spoonfuls two minutes and so on. At the expiration of the time the tea should be strained. Under no circumstances should tea in a pot be alwed to stand on a stove to Reep warm The theine is the quality of tea that makes it valuable. By quickly draining this quality is obtained pure; by allowing the hot water to stand in the teapot, the tannin is brought out and the tea becomes bitter."

SUPPRESS RAHKE

TWO WEST INDIANAPOLIS POLICE-MEN STATIONED AT HIS PLACE.

Chief Buchanan Has a Plan to Stop Gambling at This Notorious Man's House.

There was considerable excitement in the cinity of Gus Rahke's gambling house, in West Indianapolis, yesterday afternoon, when Chief of Police Buchanan and two patrolmen of the West Indianapolis police force suddenly appeared and entered the front door of the resort. Every one who saw the officers took it for granted that the resort was to be raided in broad daylight, and consequently, in a very few minutes, a large crowd had collected around the door, No attempt was made, however, to gain access to the upper floor, where gambling has been conducted, and in a short time Rahke and several other men who had been apprised of the officers' arrival came down the stairs with their hats and coats in their hands, as though prepared to be placed under arrest and taken to the jail. But no such thing was done, and Chief Buchanan explained to Rahke that he had come around to keep him company, and that from that moment officers would be stationed in the place until all evidence that gambling was in progress had been Rahke and his friends were evidently very much relieved upon learning that they were not to be placed under arrest. The news had spread rapidly, and the crowd which had congregated also seemed disap- gational Church will give a literary and pointed, and continued to hang around the place, even after Chief Buchanan had departed, leaving the patrolmen. Rahke and the officers were evidently on very good terms, and they walked outside, where they passed the afternoon in pleasant conversa-tion. The men who had been upstairs with Rahke in the rooms which have been used as gambling rooms waited around until supper time and then departed, leaving Rahke and the officers. For some time past Rahke has been running his place without molestation, and it is claimed that he has been again operating all the games known to the gambling fra-ternity. The police officers of the suburn have been revolving plans of attack in their minds, and state that they have at last selected one, which, if carried out as they intend, will finally rid them of the gambling pest with which they have so long been afflicted. Chief Buchanan states that a part of the plan is to keep police officers stationed at Rahke's day and night, and whenever any one goes up to the gambling rooms the officers will go also, and in this way prevent any games run-ning. But what is to be gained by this procedure in the end is not apparent. the officers decline to state what else there may be to their plan. Rahke's resort was raided about a month ago, but owing to a owner. Since then nothing had been done toward suppressing the evil, and some of the citizens were becoming impatient. What the result of the present action will be is yet to be seen.

PUT THE EAGLE IN TRAINING.

The Bird That Helped Republicans Last Fall Now Across the River. The eagle which did such valiant service to the Republican party last fall during the county campaign by occupying a large cage at the headquarters of the Republican county committee, on North Delaware street, and greedily devouring roosters in prophetic illustration of the manner in which the national bird was to devour the Democratic rooster on Nov. 6, is now occupying a secluded room in a building in the rear of the city building in West In- nue, girl. dianapolis. Immediately after the election last fall Chairman Merrill Moores, in recognition of the good work of the bird, took it to the top of the soldiers' monument, where it was liberated. But owing to its long confinement and the fact that it had been wounded in the wing when it was captured, it only succeeded in reaching a yard on North Meridian street, where it was caught and returned to the monu ment. Upon the second trial it swoop down immediately to the ground and was then taken back to its home at the committee rooms. There it remained for some time and was finally taken to its present home. Although it has been well fed through the kindness of Councilman Wheeler, of the suburb, it has become quite bility.

A LITTLE CHILD DISAPPEARS.

No Trace of Mr. and Mrs. George Gebhard's Three-Year-Old Daughter. Mr. and Mrs. George Gebhard, residing at No. 12 Woodburn avenue, West Indianapolis, were almost distracted last night over the mysterious disappearance of their three-year-old daughter. The little one was playing around the yard about 8 o'clock yesterday morning, but when her mother went out to look for her but a few minutes later she had disappeared, and all attempts to find her were fruitless. Mr. Gebhard, who is employed by the Indianapolis Stove Company, was notified immediately, and upon returning home made a complete search of the neighborhood, but could find no traces of the missing child. He then notified the suburban police, who also made an exhaustive search, but without result. The Gebhards have resided here but about

McClelland saw them start and gave chase. Down Michigan street they went, the marshal jumping from one mud puddle into another, until he final-ly jumped into a buggy and ordered the driver to give chase. But the hucksters had a good start and were fast leaving the of cer in the rear when, unfortunately for them, Marshal Tharp stepped out of a store directly in their path, and, taking in the condition of affairs at a glance, walked into the street and halted them. They were taken back and compelled to pay the amount of the license.
